INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ARTS

For 75 years, the ICA has used its buildings and platform to celebrate the arts, influence culture, and bring people together to share radically progressive ideas. As we face some of the most complex ecological, economic and social justice challenges ever seen, both nationally and globally, the ICA's critical approach is needed more than ever. Over seven decades, the ICA has staged numerous groundbreaking exhibitions and legendary concerts, and its cinema continues to be a major voice in independent film. Today, our programme – across exhibitions, performance, cinema and film, theatre, music, architecture, design – is dedicated to issues of racial justice, social justice, and the championing of voices at the forefront of progressive culture.

PURPOSE OF JOB AND KEY OBJECTIVES

The Projectionist will be responsible for cinema projection, ensuring presentations of the highest technical standard in any media in the ICA cinemas.

The successful Projectionist will have knowledge and appreciation of the ICA programme and an interest in the arts. They will be responsible for keeping excellent tracking of upcoming programmes and material needed. They will be working closely with the Head of Cinema, Senior Projectionist and the Film Programme Manager. They will be liaising with couriers and distributors on transport of film prints and all other screening media to and from the ICA cinemas.

KEY TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The above list is not exclusive or exhaustive and the post holder will be required to undertake such duties as may reasonably be expected within the scope of the post. All members of staff are required to be professional, co-operative and flexible in line with the needs of the post, Department and the ICA.

Job descriptions are reviewed regularly and at least prior to the annual appraisal, if applicable to ensure they are an accurate representation of the post.

The Institute of Contemporary Arts is committed to up-holding the Equality Act 2010 and encouraging equality and diversity within our workforce and all opportunities provided by the ICA.

We encourage applications from all backgrounds, communities and industries, and we are committed to having a team that is made up of diverse skills, experiences and abilities. We actively encourage BAME and disabled applicants and value the positive impact that difference has on our teams. Whilst some of our offices have barriers to access, we are taking steps to resolve these, and in the meantime continue to encourage interest from applicants who require reasonable adjustments within the workplace.

I have read and understood and accept the responsibilities listed in this Job Description and that the ICA reserves the right to vary these duties as described at any point in time, to keep in pace with the changing needs of the organization.
